SOTA RELEASES 2012 IBDP EXAMINATION RESULTS FOR FIRST GRADUATING COHORT

1 The first graduating cohort from The School of the Arts (SOTA) collected their International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme (IBDP) results from the school today.

Performance of 2012 Graduating Cohort

2 A total of 80 students sat for the IBDP in 2012 and SOTA has achieved a Diploma Pass Rate of 100%. 43.75% students obtained a score of between 40 – 45 points, with six students achieving top scores of 44 & 45. SOTA's students scored 38.4 points on average, higher than the Singapore average of 36.50 and global average of 30.01.

SOTA's Admission Approach

3 SOTA primarily admits its students based on artistic talent and potential. Therefore, students are admitted with wide-ranging PSLE T-scores from across the spectrum of the Express stream. Nevertheless, SOTA students have performed well in all subjects across the three core subjects and six subject groups.

About The School of the Arts, Singapore

The School of the Arts (SOTA) is Singapore's first national pre-tertiary specialised arts school to offer a 6-year unique integrated arts and academic curriculum for youths aged 13-18 years old.

Under the ambit of the Ministry of Culture, Community and Youth (MCCY), the School offers a dedicated development path for those who have interest and show early talent in the arts, providing a learning environment where both the artistic and academic potential can best be realised.

With a vision to identify and groom future generations of artists and creative professionals, SOTA builds on Singapore's unique strengths, including her multicultural Asian diversity and globally connected networks to synergise talents and resources.

A school of the future, SOTA embraces a holistic educational philosophy that celebrates experimentation, expression and discovery.
