(A.2) Important Milestones for Literary Arts Applicants

Literary Arts

TALENT ACADEMY 2023

(B) Preparation Notes for Portfolio Submission in Literary Arts (for all applicants)

Literary Arts is the integrative discipline of literary appreciation and creative writing. Literary Arts students will have the opportunity to appreciate and learn the creative process behind literary and non-literary forms such as the short story, poetry, the play, the novel, non-fiction, and multimodal texts.

To apply to Literary Arts, you will need to demonstrate a strong interest in writing and a willingness to experiment with different writing forms. You are expected to be skilled in writing and expressing yourself in English. You should also have a love for reading and a curiosity to discover more about yourself, others, and the world you live in. The auditions are structured to allow you to express your passion for writing as well as to demonstrate your potential and suitability for the Literary Arts Programme.

Knowledge of, and an appreciation for, different writing forms would be an advantage. You should have explored writing either in your primary school, or on your own.
